The public value of the personal information in biographical affidavits is outweighed by the possible harm to persons submitting these affidavits, and, in particular, social security numbers are exempt from the public records law. See § VIII.E.4. (p. 24) of the Wisconsin Attorney General's 2012 public records compliance outline. Therefore, we request that you consider the biographical affidavits to be exempt from the public records law and decline to release them to the public.

We hope this information is responsive to your inquiries. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me, Bill Toman, or Paul Van Den Heuvel, Vice President and General Counsel of Mercy Health System, at 608-756-6158 or pvandenheuvel@mhsjvl.org. Thank you for your expedited consideration.

Very truly yours,
