Re: Acquisition of Control of Physicians Insurance Company of Wisconsin Inc.
by ProAssurance Corporation (Case No. 06-C29893)

Dear Mr. Vande Hey:

As a supplement to the filing that accompanied my letter of March 6, 2006, enclosed is financial information on ProAssurance subsidiaries. ProAssurance is providing this information in response to request No. 24 of your letter of February 28, 2006. As our counsel has discussed with OCI staff, this financial information is not audited and its posting on OCI's website, therefore, could create securities law issues. We understand that pursuant to standard OCI practice, the financial information will not be published on OCI's website.

With respect to your request No. 2 for certain minutes of the Board of Directors, ProAssurance is not filing that information because the minutes reflect privileged attorney-client communication, in addition to constituting trade secrets of ProAssurance.

With respect to your request No. 4, enclosed are the following from the December 7, 2005 meeting of the ProAssurance Board of Directors: (a) discussion materials; (b) ProAssurance management analysis; and (c) the Morgan Keegan & Company, Inc. fairness opinion. These documents constitute "trade secrets" of ProAssurance under Section 134.90(1)(c) of the Wisconsin Statutes. ProAssurance files these documents subject to a request for CONFIDENTIAL treatment and an exception, under Section 19.36(5) of the Wisconsin Statutes, to public access and disclosure.

All of the information referenced above supports and is consistent with ProAssurance's Form A filing as well as the Registration Statement (Form S-4) filed with the S.E.C. in connection with this matter. ProAssurance representatives remain available to meet to discuss these responses or any other matters of interest with the OCI at your convenience.

Sincerely,
