

ORDER OF THE OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE AMENDING AND CREATING A RULE

To amend Ins 3.37 (1) to (5) (intro);

To create Ins. 3.37 (2m), (3m), (4m) and (5m), and 3.375, Wis. Adm. Code, Relating to health insurance coverage of nervous and mental disorders and substance use disorders.

ANALYSIS PREPARED BY THE OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE (OCI)

1. Statutes interpreted:

s. 600.01, 628.34 (12), and 632.89, Stats.

2. Statutory authority:

ss. 600.01 (2), 601.41 (3), 601.42, 628.34 (12), and 632.89, Stats.

3. Explanation of OCI's authority to promulgate the proposed rule under these statutes:

The commissioner is required to promulgate rules to implement recreated s. 632.89, Stats., pursuant to s. 632.89 (4) (b), Stats., ensuring that insurers offering group health benefit plans and self-funded governmental plans include as a covered benefit the treatment of nervous and mental disorders and substance use disorders. In addition s. 632.89 (4) (a), Stats., requires the commissioner to promulgate rules relating to transitional treatment.

4. Related statutes or rules:

Section 609.71, Stats., was also created by 2009 Wis. Act 218 requiring defined health plans comply with the requirements contained in s. 632.89 and s. Ins 3.37, Wis. Admin. Code describe coverage for transitional treatment as required by s. 632.89 (4) (a), Stats.

5. The plain language analysis and summary of the proposed rule:

The proposed rule implements the recreated s. 632.89, Stats., instituting mental health parity in the treatment of nervous and mental disorders and substance use disorders. The proposed rule amends regulations relating to transitional treatment coverage and creates a new section for implementing requirements for the coverage of nervous and mental disorders and substance use disorders.

The transitional treatment regulation is bifurcated into requirements for plans issued on or after November 1, 2007 and prior to December 1, 2010 and parallel numbered sections for policies issued on or after December 1, 2010. For existing policies or policies for which an employer has requested an exemption pursuant to s. 632.89 (3c) or (3f), Stats., the requirements reflect s. 632.89, 2007 Stats., and updated cites and provisions of regulations contained in the department of health services pertaining to transitional treatment.

For plans issued on or after December 1, 2010, parallel requirements are created within the proposed revisions to s. Ins 3.37 to apply to insurers offering group health insurance plans and for self-insured governmental plans on a going forward basis. The types of services are the same except for removal of minimum dollar limitations and the types of insurers or self-insured governmental plans to which the requirements apply.

Concerns were raised regarding compliance with the PPACA requirement that no annual limits may be imposed for essential benefits and that s. 632.89 (2), 2007 Stats., benefit levels have a set dollar amount. The concerns were silenced after identifying that the s. 632.89 (2), 2007 Stats., are written as “not less than” so act as benefit floors and therefore do not preclude an insurer from exceeding the floor amount in compliance with the federal law.

The proposed rule also creates s. Ins 3.375, Wis. Adm. Code, to implement s. 632.89, Stats., for policies issued on or after December 1, 2010, that requires insurers offering group health insurance and self-insured governmental plans to provide coverage for the treatment of nervous and mental disorders and substance use disorders no more restrictively than coverage for the most common or frequent type of treatment limitations that are applied to substantially all other coverage under the plan. This means insurers and self-insured governmental plans cannot impose limited benefits or impose different cost-sharing provisions based upon receiving nervous, mental or substance use disorders treatment. The rule defines “substantially all” to mean that the terms of coverage for nervous, mental and substance use disorders is to be treated no more restrictively than a single type of financial requirements or quantitative treatment limitations that apply to two-thirds of covered medical or surgical benefits.

Pursuant to s. 632.89 (3c), Stats., for employers seeking an exemption based upon increased costs related to the parity requirements, employers may request insurers to have a qualified actuary determine, at the insurer’s cost, whether the employer is eligible for the exemption. Nothing in the rule, however, limits or prohibits an employer or self-funded governmental plan from obtaining, at their cost, a qualified actuarial determination.

Proposed s. Ins 3.375 (5), contains provisions governing insurers offering individual health benefit plans that contain benefits for the treatment of nervous and mental disorders or substance use disorders. Insurers offering these individual health benefit plans shall make available the criteria for determining medical necessity and if the individual health benefit plan denies benefits related to nervous and mental disorders or substance use disorders it shall make the reason for the denial available to the insured, participant, or beneficiary in addition to complying with s. 632.857, Stats.

For eligible employers electing an exemption, Appendix 1 and 2 contain the model notices that insurers are to provide to employers or self-insured governmental plans that the employer is to post and distribute to employees explaining the basis of the exemption as well as a list of the benefits that will be provided to the employees as was contained in s. 632.89, 2007 Stats.

6. Summary of and preliminary comparison with any existing or proposed federal regulation that is intended to address the activities to be regulated by the proposed rule:

The Mental Health Parity and Addiction Equity Act of 2008 (“MHPAEA”), was effective October 1, 2009 with interim final regulations published in February 2010. Wisconsin’s 2009 Wis. Act 218 paralleled many provisions of the federal law in the statute and enhanced coverage benefits for Wisconsin consumers insured through small employers and covered by individual health benefit plans.

Additionally, the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, P.L. 111-148, as amended by the Federal Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, P.L. 111-152 (jointly “PPACA”), identifies the treatment for mental health benefits and substance use disorders as an essential benefit that is to be contained in all health plans effective January 1, 2014. Further, as an essential benefit, as of September 23, 2010, insurers are to remove annual limits and phase out lifetime limitations over the next several years.

However, as of the date of this proposed rule, no specific federal guidance has been provided on how the MHPAEA and PPACA will be combined and what affect that combination will have on insurers and consumers. In the absence of such guidance, the commissioner’s proposed rule does not interfere with an insurer’s ability to comply with Wisconsin law, federal parity and federal health reform.

7. Comparison of similar rules in adjacent states as found by OCI:

Illinois: 214 Ill. Comp. Stat. Ann 5/370c, SB 1341, and HB 2190 provide minimum mandated benefits affecting group health policies having more than 50 enrolled employees. Covered conditions include serious mental illness, including pervasive developmental disorders and post-traumatic stress disorders. Benefits include a minimum of 45 inpatient days and 35 outpatient visits benefits for serious mental illness; other mental health conditions may be subject to 50% co-pays and the lesser of the annual limit of $10,000.00 or 25% of the lifetime policy limit. Mental illness resulting from the use of controlled substances or cannabis and addictions to controlled substances and cannabis are not required to be covered.

Iowa: Iowa code 514c.22 and HF420 provide minimum mandated benefits affecting group health policies having more than 50 enrolled employees. There is a 50-employee exemption if no coverage of mental illness is provided. Serious mental illness including pervasive developmental disorders and autistic disorders are covered; the minimum benefits include 30 inpatient days and 52 outpatient visits per plan year.

Michigan: SB 1209/Act 252 provides a minimum mandated benefit affecting Health Maintenance Organizations (HMOs) that covers broad-based mental health disorders and substance use disorders. Minimum coverage levels include a 3% cost exemption and no fewer than 20 outpatient mental health visits per plan year.

Minnesota: Minn. Stat. Sec. 62A.152, Minn. Stat. Sec. 62Q.47, and SB 845 provide comprehensive parity for HMOs and Community Integrated Service Networks. Benefits are mandated if offered for individual and group policies. Broad-based mental health disorders and substance use disorders are covered at minimum coverage levels.

8. A summary of the factual data and analytical methodologies that OCI used in support of the proposed rule and how any related findings support the regulatory approach chosen for the proposed rule:

The commissioner appointed a 20-member advisory council that met two times to discuss implementation advice to the commissioner on the parity law, content and delivery of notices to employees and components of the actuarial study. The council membership includes Sen. Hansen and Rep. Pasch, the sponsors of Wisconsin's law as well as representatives from the insurance industry, mental health and hospital providers, consumer mental health and substance use disorder advocates, large and small businesses. The commissioner's staff also met with the Department of Health Services to ensure citations and coverage description reflects current transitional treatment provisions and updated regulations. The proposed rule reflects the results of the council's deliberations and advice.

9. Any analysis and supporting documentation that OCI used in support of OCI's determination of the rule's effect on small businesses under s. 227.114:

Upon review of insurers affected by the regulation, the office identified no small businesses that would be affected by the regulation.

10. See the attached Private Sector Fiscal Analysis.

Private sector fiscal analysis is attached to the rule

11. A description of the Effect on Small Business:

No significant effect will be imposed on regulated small businesses. No additional technology requirements are necessary to comply with the regulation.
