Whenever any type of notice is required to be given to any Director of the Corporation under the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws or any provision of law, a waiver thereof in writing, signed at any time, whether before or after the time of meeting, by the director entitled to such notice, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, unless that director objects at the beginning of such meeting or promptly upon arrival at such meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened and thereafter does not vote or assent to action taken at the meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board need be specified in the waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 3.14 Meeting by Electronic Communication.

Meetings of the Board may be conducted through the use of any means of communication (i) by which all participating directors may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting or (ii) by which all communication is immediately transmitted to each participating director, and each participating director is able to immediately send messages to all other participating directors. Prior to beginning such meeting, all directors shall be informed that a meeting is being conducted at which official business may be transacted. A director participating in such meeting is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Section 3.15 Unanimous Consent Without Meeting.

Any action required or permitted by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws or by any provision of law to be taken by the Board at a meeting may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the directors entitled to vote with respect to such action.

Section 3.16 Conduct of Meetings.

The Board, by affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office, and irrespective of any personal interest of any of its members, may establish reasonable compensation of all directors for services to the Corporation as directors, officers or otherwise, or may delegate such authority to an appropriate committee. The Board also shall have authority to provide for or to delegate authority to an appropriate committee to provide for reasonable pensions, disability, or death benefits, and other benefits or payments to directors, officers, and employees and to their estates, families, dependents or beneficiaries on account of prior services rendered to the Corporation by such directors, officers and employees.

Section 3.18 Committees.

The Board may by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors fixed in accordance with these Bylaws designate one or more committees. Each such committee shall consist of at least three directors. Section 4.8. Assistants.

The Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers (if any), respectively (in the order designated by the Board or, lacking such designation, by the President), in the absence of the Secretary or the Treasurer, as the case may be, shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary or Treasurer and shall perform such other duties as the Board or the President shall prescribe.

Any indemnification under Section 5.1 (unless otherwise ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon determination that indemnification of the director, officer or employee is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the applicable provision of Wisconsin law. Such determination shall be made in accordance with Section 180.0855 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

Section 5.3. Maintenance of Insurance.

The Board may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation against liability asserted against and incurred by the person in that person's capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, or arising from that person's status as a director, officer, employee or agent, regardless of whether the Corporation is required or authorized to indemnify the person against the same liability.
